

Report of training of Middle level trainer

Batch No. 1 at General Hospital Sector-10, Gurgaon.

Date: 24th to 30th March 2014.

National Trainers : Dr. K.C.Aggarwal, Dr. Anita Gupta, Dr. B.B. Gupta, Ms. Lubna Umar.

Number Of Participants : 25 Participants (3 Medical Officers, 11 AYUSH Doctors, 5 Staff Nurses, 2 Nutritionist and 2 PHN 2 Dentist).

This training course was started on 24th March 2014. There was 25 participants who attended the training. The National trainers conducted training for 3days of 25 participants from District Gurgaon. The training was started with the pre evaluation test of participants. This training course was inaugurated by Dr. K.C. Aggarwal Consultant & HOD Peadiatrics in Safdarjung Hospital, New Delhi on 24th march 2014. The objective and the course content of the training were explained by Dr. Anita Gupta.

There was 7 days training which has 2 phases i.e. first phase was preparatory phase which comprises of 21 theoretical session, 2 clinical practice session, 2 practice session. These courses also have practical demonstration and role plays. In preparatory phase there was 25 participants who were trained by National Trainers and in participatory phase these 25 Participants taken sessions under the supervision of National Trainers .

Dr. Pushpa Bishnoi (Civil Surgeon, Gurgaon) chaired the Valedictory function along with and Dr. Neelam Thaper (DIO & Deputy Civil Surgeon, Gurgaon) on 30th march 2014. She appreciated the efforts done by BPNI in conducting this structured course, she suggested that such training should be conducted at regular interval and the benefits of these trainings must reach up to the family level through Staff nurse. At the end of the training certificate were distributed to all the participants.

Complementary food preparation by the participant

Clinical Session taken by the participants

Role play By the participants

Valedictory Function Chaired by the Civil Surgeon